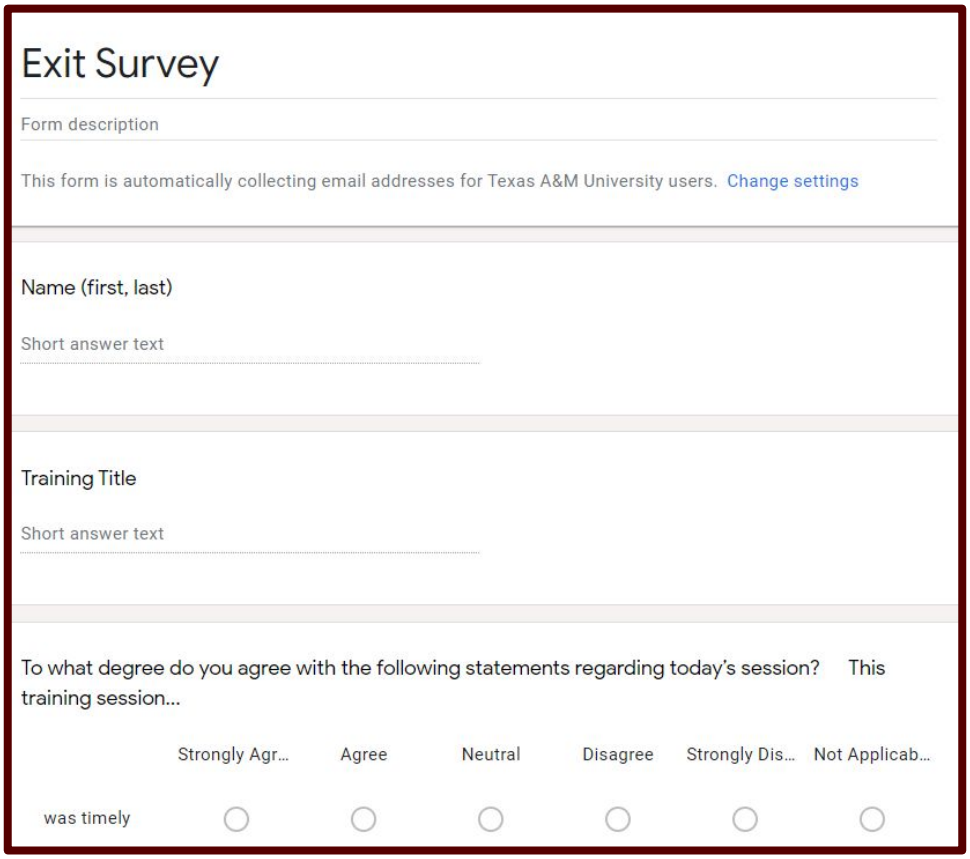
Google Form to Survey Participants After Training

An exit survey is a great way to gather feedback from your participants. Use this form to gather data and assess what adjustments should be made for your next training session. The button below once clicked, will prompt you to “Make a Copy”. Once this is done you will find your editable copy of the Google Form in your Google Drive account. Change the name to fit your training topic, and add more questions as necessary.

Get Your Google Form Here



Exit Survey

Form description

This form is automatically collecting email addresses for Texas A&M University users. Change settings

Name (first, last)

Short answer text

Training Title

Short answer text

To what degree do you agree with the following statements regarding today's session? This training session...

	Strongly Agr...	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Dis...	Not Applicab... was timely	○	○	○	○	○	○